Integrated Adult Education Embedding Literacy in Multi-Sectoral Adult Learning and Education

MOJA Webinar – August 29th, 2023

Rationale for Integrated Adult Education (IAE)

- High dropout rates of literacy programmes
- Perceived lack of relevance
- Inflexible calendars and timetables
- Length of programmes
- Complexity of participatory programmes

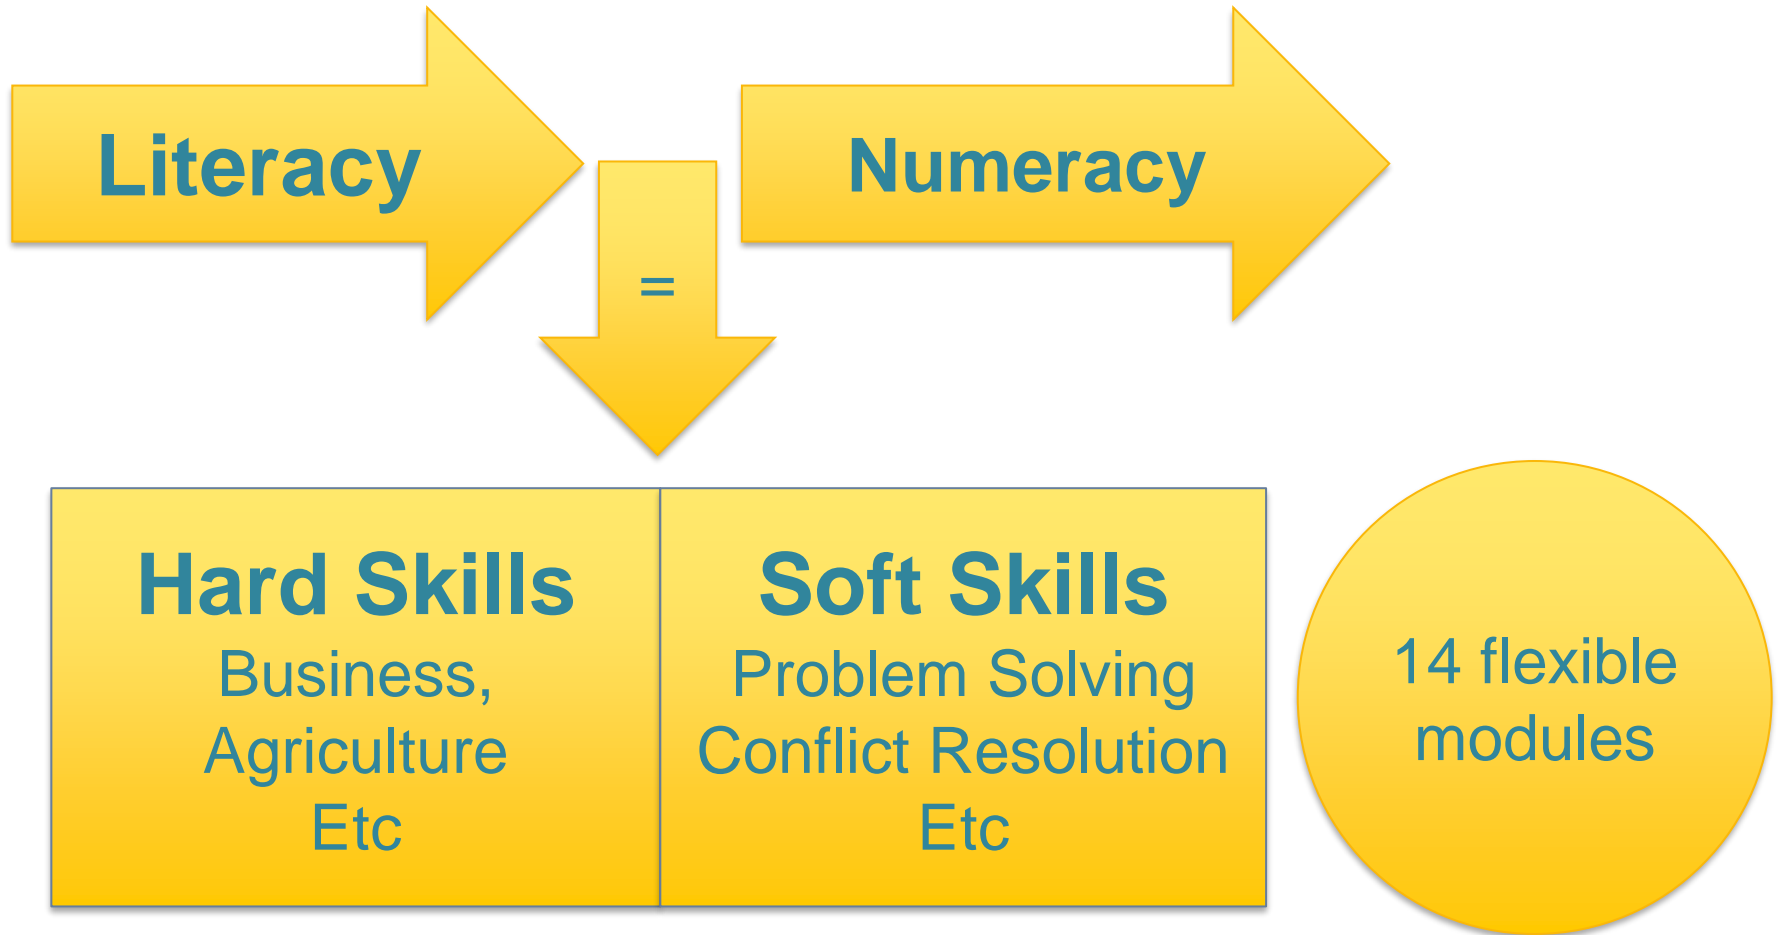

Characteristics of IAE

- Develops reading, writing and numeracy skills
- Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)
- Adaptable Modular Curriculum
- Relevance of Programme Contents
- Flexible Calendars and Timetables

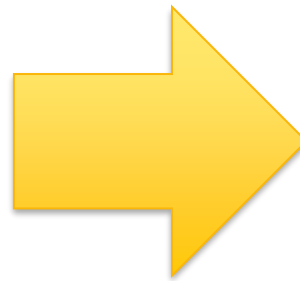

Characteristics of IAE (continued)

- Levels of Competency
- Short, user-friendly units
- Continuous (formative) Assessment
- Shorter duration of Programme
- Absence of Textbooks

Integrated Adult Education

Objectives of IAE

1. To provide a literacy curriculum that includes the acquisition of hard and soft life skills that are recognised drivers of family income.

Objectives of IAE

2. To use participatory approaches and develop facilitators' competencies to ensure that community literacy programmes are dynamic and responsive

Community-based Literacy Forums

Creating ownership and locally rooted management and monitoring structures

Identifying appropriate local premises: Example of the MSC: Before and After

Literacy Circle After Cyclone

IAE in Mozambique uses primary school premises as learning places, but also community centres

Literacy Circle Participants

Combining literacy with needs-oriented complementary topics like horticulture

Managing Small Business – impossible without numeracy

Sharing good Practices Exchanging with Others

Joint Community Visits Learning from each Other
